Class of # 1957

Once again it becomes my duty to say farewell to the members of another graduating class. In the very short period of twenty-one years, Roslindale High has sent forth hundreds of young men and women from its portals. Each of these has been equipped with basic knowledges and skills in accordance with the particular course of study chosen and pursued.

At no time since this high school started has a graduating class gone out to a world of peace and tranquility. This is just as true today as it has been in each of its previous years of existence.

It is not, therefore, unlikely that you look to the future with a certain degree of fear as to the uncertainties of the world and as to your future success.

Fear is natural to the human heart. It can possess the most courageous of men. The most decorated heroes admit that they were fearful in battle prior to the exploits or events that won for them the plaudits of an admiring world. Those who are not remembered in song and story because of their fears were those whose apprehensions were based on actual cowardice.

Your uneasiness will not be based, however, on fears that have their roots in cowardice. Yours springs from the salutary emotions that come from humility. Humbly admitting that you are not possessed of all knowledge, you will seek paths that will lead to the greater acquisition of learning, using your present basic preparation as a sure foundation to greater successes in life.

Placing your hopes in the Dispenser of all good things, work diligently and steadfastly. Trust in Him to lead you away from the crooked paths that will beset you on your journey through life. With such faith and trust your lives will be calm and success assured.

Herewith the Senior Council, which has labored long and quietly to save the Senior Class some money! To this end to date, we have arranged the best prom for the least money, and later we will arrange the best Class Day for the least money. Also, we have helped in reducing the cost of this yearbook by assisting the Business Staff in securing ads from local merchants and by having each councilor obtain a contribution from each senior homeroom for ads in this yearbook.

Class Will

Having been exposed for the past three years to a certain degree of knowledge within this edifice of education, and having, at last, fulfilled this assigned period of exposure, we, the Class of 1957, do now rejoicingly cut out; departing with the earnest intent to employ the vast knowledge which we have so diligently absorbed and hence bring honor, glory, and great fame (to which we are undoubtedly destined) to ourselves and our beloved school.

As we depart from this our second home, we shall carry forever with us the memory of our guards and overseers—or, rather, our devoted teachers and advisors, who gave us not only prudent counsel but also valuable instruction. We, therefore, at our departure, wish to bequeath certain appropriate tokens as our humble endeavor to augment our cherished pupil-teacher relations and a symbol of our unquestionable appreciation. We forthwith submit the following bequests:

To Mr. Gately we leave our hearty thanks for his guidance during the past three years.

To Miss Burke we leave a room filled with noiseless office practice machines.

To Miss Burns we leave an electrically run elevator chair for speedy transit from 104 to 204.

To Mrs. Clayton, our school nurse, we leave some peppermint tongue depressors.

To Miss Cogan we leave a bell that rings automatically three minutes before filing time.

To Miss Connor we leave a list of program changes.

To Miss Daly we leave an automatic coin-changer and a king-size bank in which to save for that air-conditioner.

To Miss Donahoe we leave a slow clock on the wall for the 8:30 English classes.

To Mrs. Dunbar we leave a group of silent, single-file marchers.

To Lt. Famulari we leave a twelfth general order—"to be especially watchful in the gun-room." Dum-da-dum-dum!

To Mr. Gabele we leave an automatic ventilating machine to keep room 21 warm during the first period.

To Mr. Gleason we leave a set of blunt dissecting kits for those blood-thirsty students.

To Miss Grandfield we leave a little friend who helped us faithfully through our trig—THETA

To Mr. Grasso we leave a list of 100 prospective yearbook ad buyers.

To Miss Guiney we leave our slightly used "Bragdon" best-sellers for the use of future fortunate H8 classes.

To Miss Keough we leave saluting.

To Mr. Landrigan we leave a year's supply of Smith Brothers' cough drops so that he can survive in future English classes. Ahem!

To Miss MacLeod we leave a tape recording of a;slckfjgh.

To Mr. Midman we leave an Art Class which was "interesting" and had "possibilities."

To Mr. Murphy we leave a diagram for a forward-upside-down-backward-inside-out roll.

To Miss Neal we leave a new recipe for vanilla fudge and a box of vitamin pills for her jack-in-the-beanstalk.

To Mr. O'Brien we leave a stool outside room 119 so he won't get tired of watching out for the culprits who go to their lockers between periods.

To Miss Reilly we leave our sincere thanks for teaching us how to—think.

To Mr. Reynolds we leave a book entitled "How To Put Over a Science Lesson In 40 Minutes" or "Why Don't We Have Eighty Minute Periods?"

To Miss Stavrinou we leave a 12x12 inch picture of Jose Greco and a sound recording of his Spanish

To Mrs. Sullivan we leave a snappy group of Rossie Rockettes.

To Miss Toland we leave a job well done on both the "Tattler" and the "Transcript."

To Mr. Walsh we leave an automatic eye glass changer.

To Miss Ward we leave a homeroom that always puts away their lipsticks, mirrors, and combs without being asked.

To Miss Wheland we leave a little Spanish villa in room 207.

To the Junior boys we leave our neckties.

To the Junior girls we leave our shoes; we hope they can fill them.

And in conclusion as we leave, bowing three times to the east and bidding a final "salaam" before the brilliant Red and Gold shield of R.H.S., we do carry with us one thing—the precious lamp of learning. This we will always carry with us for we will always need it. It will help us to remember our struggling days at Rossie High and our friendly teachers who aided us in the struggle.

This year our baseball team rolled up an astonishing record of twelve wins and only one loss to gain undisputed possession of the District League Title.

Two of the team's members were picked for the Boston All-Star team. Charles Bennett, who led the league in home runs with six, started at shortstop, and John Conley, perhaps the best catcher in Boston High School baseball, started behind the plate.

Brian Sullivan, who won seven games and lost none, compiled the best pitching record in the District League.

Congratulations to Coach Murphy and his squad.
